

RICHMOND MEN ARE PAYING UP.

They are Settling Election Bets as Gracefully as Possible.

A VERY AMUSING WAGER.

Governor Tyler Will Issue Thanksgiving Proclamation Monday—Mrs. James E. Turpin Brought Home Meeting of the Board of Public Instruction U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Docket to be Called at Monday's Session Probable Changes in Methodist Pastorates.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Richmond, Va., Nov. 10.—The losers of election bets are now paying up with such grace as they can command, and very peculiar bets some of them are.

Of course, a considerable quantity of money will change hands, at least $2,000 in this city, but there are many other wagers in which no money is involved, and these excite the greatest interest.

Probably the most singular was that entered into by Messrs. John N. Brown and John Clayton, of this city.

By reason of the result of the election, Mr. Clayton will have to push a match four squares through one of the principal streets of Richmond, using another match as the propelling power. The time for paying the bet has not yet been fixed, but it will occur within the next few days, and will no doubt attract a large and interested crowd.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.
Governor Tyler went down to Newport News this morning and was present at the launching of the monitor Arkansas there.

The Governor has prepared a rough draft of his Thanksgiving proclamation. He will probably issue it on Monday.

MRS. TURPIN BROUGHT HOME.

Mrs. James E. Turpin, of Barton Heights, near this city, was brought to her home in a special car this morning.

Mrs. Turpin was on her way home from Arkansas Hot Springs when the train was wrecked.

BOARD OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.
A meeting of the Board of Public Instruction will be held on Monday next.

Many matters of interest to the public schools of the State will come up. A school superintendent of Pulaski county will probably be re-elected.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.
The United States Circuit Court of Appeals convened again this morning at 10 o'clock, and heard argument in the following cases:

No. 363, Washington Steamboat Company, Limited, appellant, vs. Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, defendant.

No. 364, East Coast Cedar Company et al., appellants, vs. Federal Bank, of Buffalo, N. Y., et al., appellees.

Appeal from the Circuit Court of North Carolina, at Raleigh. Motion by appellants to dismiss the appeal of appellants, on the ground the decree appealed from was not a final decree.

Joseph E. Shepherd, of Raleigh, N. C., argued in support of the motion, and F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, refused to take up the motion at this time, but stated it would be taken up when the case was reached for argument on the merits.

MONDAY'S DOCKET.
The following cases will be called Monday morning:

No. 355, John D. Wall and Thomas W. Huske, petitioners, vs. W. O. Cox, trustee, et al., respondents. On petition to review from the District Court at Greensboro. Bankruptcy.

W. W. Patton, plaintiff in error, vs. Southern Railway Company, defendant in error. From the Circuit Court at Asheville, N. C.

No. 365, Mrs. Marie C. Cobb, appellant, vs. John P. Overman, trustee in bankruptcy of G. W. Cobb et al., bankrupt, appellee. Appeal from the District Court at New Bern, N. C.

RUMORS ABOUT PASTORS.
As the date for the annual convention of the Methodist Conference of Virginia draws near rumors are rife as to the possible changes which will be made in the Richmond pastorates. Of course nothing can be stated with absolute certainty, but a pretty general idea of how matters will go may be gleaned from the opinions of those interested in the matter.

A well-established rumor has it that Rev. F. E. Shipp, of Fairmont, who was transferred last year from the Florida Conference to Virginia, will ask to be returned to Florida on account of the sickness of near relatives.

His people are much endeared to him, and his departure from the neighborhood would be a source of regret.

Rev. S. C. Scherer, of Hasker Memorial Church, who has been sick a good deal this year, will possibly have to retire from active duty for several months to recuperate.

Rev. S. J. Peters, of Barton Heights, is spoken of for several good churches, and among them one at Hampton, Va.

JUDGE SIMONTON MAY RETIRE.
There is an interesting rumor in circulation that Judge Simonton, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, will shortly retire on account of ill-health, he having had several very severe spells.

In the event of his retirement, it is said that District Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., will succeed him, and that Judge L. L. Lewis, of this city, formerly president of the Virginia Supreme Court, will succeed Judge Waddill.

Judge Simonton's position was $7,500 a year, with an allowance of $10 a day for expenses while court is in session.

Five Dead Bodies Found.
Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 10.—The bodies of five persons, supposed to be oystermen, washed ashore a few days ago on the Potomac river, three at Colonial Beach and two at the mouth of Rosier's Creek. The men are thought to have been accidentally drowned from drifting vessels. They could not be identified.

Every flower path does not lead to glory—every easy proposition that comes along should not be accepted.

PETERSBURG.

IMPORTANT NEWS ITEMS FROM THE COCKADE CITY.
(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 10.—News was received here this morning of the death of Mr. George Bendall, who committed suicide at his home in Surry county last night by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. The deceased was a son of Mr. James Bendall of Surry county, and a brother of Miss Lillie Bendall, who was here on a visit when the news of the tragic death of her brother was received. No cause is assigned for the rash act.

The condition of Captain James S. Raftery, who was so seriously injured yesterday by a train on the City Point branch of the Norfolk and Western railroad, is still very critical. He has been unconscious since 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was determined to-day that it might not be necessary to amputate his leg. Dr. J. E. Booth is his attending physician.

Dr. B. A. James has issued cards of invitation to the marriage of his daughter, Kathryn, to Mr. James Landon Hawthorne, on Wednesday afternoon, November 21st, at 5:30 o'clock, at the Presbyterian Church at Bluefield, West Virginia. The bride-elect is a charming young lady of Bluefield, and the prospective groom is a popular young citizen of Blackstone, Va.

There was a killing frost in Petersburg and vicinity this morning, and in some exposed places there was ice.

The official vote of Dinwiddie county cast at the election held on last Tuesday was as follows: Bryan, 900; McKinley, 583; Bryan's majority, 317; Lassiter (Dem.), for Congress, 1,199; Wilson (Rep.), 482; Lassiter's majority, 717.

At the next regular monthly term of the County Court of Dinwiddie application will be made for license to sell liquor at the County Courthouse. No liquor has been sold at the place for some time, and the legal fight for and against granting the license promises to be a most interesting one.

Work has been begun on the new fire-proof clerk's office to be built at Dinwiddie County Courthouse.

Game is said to be very abundant in the neighboring counties, and hunters are having fine sport.

HAMPTON.
STEWART TRIED AND CONVICTED OF FORGERY.

Hampton, Va., Nov. 10.—Harry Wellington Stewart was convicted of forgery here yesterday in the Elizabeth City County Court and given two years in the penitentiary. He forged the name of C. N. Pike, of the Hygeia Hotel, to a check for $100.

An unique point of law was raised during the trial. Stewart's lawyers held that inasmuch as the check did not have a revenue stamp on it, it was worthless and could not be submitted as evidence. Judge Lee sustained this view, but the Commonwealth's Attorney proceeded to prove, by oral testimony, that the prisoner was guilty of the charge. The jury convicted Stewart, despite the court's instruction for an acquittal unless the jurymen believed a stamp was on the check when Stewart presented it at the bank.

WANTED IN PHILADELPHIA.
Stewart is wanted in Philadelphia on charges of forgery and desertion from the marine corps. He is alleged to have forged the name of a very prominent and successful business man in the worthless check at the sub-treasury.

THE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.
ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD AT ROANOKE.

Walter Whately, of Crozet, Va., secretary and treasurer of the Virginia State Horticultural Society, writes concerning the annual meeting, soon to be held there, as follows:

"The annual meeting of the Virginia State Horticultural Society will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 20th and 21st, in the Assembly Hall at Roanoke, beginning at 9:30 a. m. For the information of members, and horticulturists generally, will you kindly make public, through your columns, that any one desirous of traveling by railway to Roanoke for the occasion can obtain a special excursion ticket by application at the rate of 4 cents per mile one way for the round trip, and that the principal hotels have promised special rates? Tickets will be on sale from the 18th inst. to return until the 23th. The meeting will be addressed by some of the most prominent horticulturalists of the United States, and also those most closely identified with the fruit industry of Virginia. Discussions on topics of interest will be a feature. Tuition in the evening are invited to bring specimens of their fruit for the exhibit to be held in the hall. Admission free to all, and anyone interested in horticulture is cordially invited."

Some Statements in Reference to a Sick Lady.

Vote of Isle of Wight County—The Westminster League—A Change of Position—Peanut Market Personal and Otherwise.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Suffolk, Va., Nov. 10.—Mrs. H. Eugene Massie, as told in to-day's Virginian-Pilot under the Durham, N. C., date line, is ill at the home of her father, Mr. Jackson Barbee, a few miles from that city. She had been unwell a few days before leaving Suffolk. The crisis of the fever will come in a day or two.

Mrs. Massie was till last May Servada Anne Barbee, a comely, lovable child of 13 years. Then she married Mr. Massie, who had been a non-commissioned officer in the First North Carolina Regiment during the Spanish war. A few hours after the event the child-bride was taken from her husband on the streets of Durham, N. C., since when they have lived as strangers.

Some weeks ago Mr. Massie and a friend came to Suffolk to seek the girl wife, but she asserted it was better that they live apart.

In regard to the statement dated from Durham that the young woman was sent to Suffolk by her father "in order to keep her from going to her husband," Mr. T. A. Barbee, of Suffolk, the girl's uncle asks me to say it is in error. He says she came to Suffolk at his (the uncle's) suggestion and her father did not know of her coming until she had expressed a willingness to herself. He states parental consent was gotten afterward.

STUBENDS OF THOUGHT.

I have more respect for a man who believes what he does not practice than for one who practices what he does not believe.

If you want to test the sincerity and loyalty of a woman's affection, endeavor to have her associate with your enemies.

Too much security in love shortens life. Like all other good things, we must fear for its loss in order to properly appreciate its value.

Too much security in love shortens life. Like all other good things, we must fear for its loss in order to properly appreciate its value.

When a man tells a malicious lie against another it is, as a rule, related in strict confidence.

There is more of the Christ-life contained in a duty painfully performed than in a faith fearfully practiced.

Education will always remain an enemy to modern religion as long as the doors of our fashion-cursed churches are closed in the face of reason.

In the study of woman's character no BRACE UP. Life is so short, and death too long. It seems like a sacrifice to stand in the way of a sunlit day. Looking for clouds to rise Out of our weakness, fears and doubts From the skies of paradise.

GERMANS PLEASED.
THEIR PRESS COMMENTS FAVORABLY ON SALISBURY'S SPEECH.
(By Telegram to Virginian-Pilot.)
Berlin, Nov. 10.—Lord Salisbury's Guild Hall speech is commented on favorably by the German press, especially the passage annexing the German agreement, in which, inferentially, Great Britain's pro-German sentiments are divulged. The British Premier's army reform references likewise meet with approval, and the hope is expressed that the reform will be thorough. The passage touching upon the United States was passed over silently by a majority of the papers.

Interest just now centres in the Reichstag opening next Wednesday, which will be particularly solemn. At noon, in the battlement of Berlin Castle, previous thereto, there will be a divine service, both Catholic and Protestant. The press generally calls attention to the importance of the forthcoming session, whose first part will deal with the China policy, the Emperor's and the government's hitherto unauthorized comprehensive measures, including the creation of a special China army, which the Liberal press has been pointing to as unconstitutional. Furthermore, the Reichstag will deal with the Posadowsky-Buenckow matter, which will arouse heated debates. The budget and bills referring to insurance companies, publishers' rights, commerce and marine will also receive attention. The Centre party will again introduce a bill providing for the recall of the Jesuits.

In spite of the North German Gazette's semi-official statement that the German press, regardless of party, received most favorably the news of President McKinley's re-election, the truth is that a large part of the press is commenting hostilely and venomously on the election result. It is significant, for instance, that the Co-logne Volks Zeitung, the leading organ of the Centre party, which dominates the Reichstag, continues the most bitter comments, depicting President McKinley's re-election as likely to re-organize in Washington a policy unfriendly to Germany.

MRS. GENEVA BALDWIN.

Mrs. Geneva Baldwin, of Los Angeles, Cal., is the woman who has attracted widespread attention by her wonderful insight into human nature. No less than 100,000 persons owe their wonderful success directly to the marvelous powers of this gifted woman. She found them employed in vocations in which they were entirely misused and pointed out to them avenues in which they would achieve success. Manhood is to her an open book. She reads character, abilities and talents, and points out the path of success as one gifted with the power of clairvoyance. She quickly learned to read the future and has been called for her services by the most powerful men of the world. Her startling revelations of the past and foretelling the future have called for comment from the press and public alike.

It was Mrs. Baldwin who warned General Latham of his impending death in the Philippines. She has been instrumental in bringing to justice no less than five murderers. She has rescued the weak from domination, the poor from poverty and power for good in her community. Mrs. Baldwin says there is nothing supernatural about her power. She has learned the secrets of the mind, and she has learned to read the character and lives of others from their hands, faces, heads and hand-writing. She reads the mind, and she reads the science and believes it ought to be taught in every school.

For the benefit of our readers, we wish to state that the book "How to Read the Mind" is given away absolutely free of charge.
